Character Development The Crucible

Which character learned a lesson over the course of this drama?	What lesson did this character learn?	What price did he/she pay to learn the lesson?

Plot Development

Consider how Arthur Miller's text differs from the film adaptation. Evaluate at least two scenes where the film dramatically departs from the text. Discuss how each difference affects the overall impact and meaning of the drama.

Irony

Explain how each type of irony is used in the drama.

"Half-Hanged" Reading Comprehension Questions

Directions: While listening to the podcast and reading along, answer the questions to your best ability. List all questions appear in order as they are found in the text.

1. (L, A, D) At the start of paragraph 1, what is the author's purpose for using imagery of the farmer?
2. (R, T) The author provides several examples of what could happen to prove someone is a witch. What do these examples tell you as a reader about witch trials during this time period?
3. (L, R, S) Provide textual evidence of the author using suspense throughout the piece.
4. (L, S) Provide two examples of literary devices throughout the piece (simile, metaphor, hyperbole, etc.)
5. (R, Q) In paragraphs 28-30, the author uses repetition for effect. What word does the author repeat? What do you suppose the author's purpose for repetition was here?

Station 1: CONFLICT

In the Overture to Act 1, Miller writes the following:

"Long-held hatreds of neighbors could now be openly expressed, and vengeance taken, besides the Bible's charitable injunctions. Land-lust which had been expressed before by constant bickering over boundaries and deeds, could now be elevated to the arena of morality; one could cry witch against one's neighbor and feel perfectly justified in the bargain. Old scores could be settled on a plane of heavenly combat between Lucifer and the Lord; suspicions and the envy of the miserable toward the happy could and did burst out in the general revenge."

Which characters are involved in the most conflict? Why? Which characters seem to have their own personal agendas in these conflicts? What suspicion, envy, hatred, or revenge do you notice? Do these characters seem to be taking out their own frustrations, or are they justified in their actions? How do these conflicts contribute to the hysteria and accusations at the end of Act 1?
